

Some of the principal points of interest will be the foundries, machine shops, and testing laboratories. There will also be an extensive exhibit at the Naval Air Station.

WHERE ARE THE CHAPELS?

Divine discontent is not an accredited emotion nowadays, but we are not satisfied. We have always been opposed to three assemblies a week. Even the two assemblies and the one chapel of last year seemed too much. But, and here comes our discontent, we do feel that we should have one assembly a week. There are many interesting people in Washington, both residents and visitors, whom the students would enjoy hearing.

Last year assemblies were well attended only during sorority "goat" period. This was no doubt discouraging to those arranging the programs. The poor attendance was due to two things. First, the number of chapels was too large. Second, the speakers were not always felicitously chosen. There was no difficulty in filling Corcoran Hall when Glenn Hunter, the Bishop of London, Katherine Riggs, or motion pictures made up the program.

Such an organization as the Pep Club has a place in the life of the University, but it does not take the place of the formal assembly which is a tradition at George Washington.

A CUT SYSTEM

George Washington has the distinction of being one of a small number of universities without a "cut" system. This means that the number of cuts depends upon the professor of each class. In most cases the only excuse for absence is illness. The result is that college students have a choice between perjury and a "black mark" on the grade book. We regret to admit that the former is generally considered the lesser of the two evils by the average student.

There are a number, not a large number perhaps, but several, reasons for not attending classes. For example, we have listened to the origin of the drama in four classes and "we heard it the first time." Another point is that a large number of concerts are held at four o'clock and occasionally the student wishes to attend one. Sometimes there is an exam in another class, the preparation for which takes the entire time of the student. (But don't tell a professor this. It is the unforgivable sin to insinuate that one is taking more than one subject.)

A cut system would not mean one student taking notes for several others. A good student realizes that missing a number of lectures means losing material which cannot be made up by outside work, and that no other student's notes are as satisfactory as his own. And the poor student realizes this with even more grief than the good student.

The time has come when someone should consider the matter. We are afraid it is just one more job for the faculty.

DISCIPLINE AND TRAINING RULES

Coach Crum was enabled to spur his outfit to one of the most glorious victories of varsity history by that oldest weapon of football coaches, strict discipline and training rules.

Those who had opportunity to talk to the George Washington grid stars early in the training season were impressed by the rigor with which "Maud" put his proteges through their paces. Truly they needed strength which was Spartan.

All of which leads us to remark on the fact that this approaches the ideal which is the principal justification and raison d'etre for college athletics; clean living.

How far the rigors of training rules went may be demonstrated by an incident in which a member of The Hatchet staff took part. One of Crum's veteran linemen called the reporter around a secluded corner in Corcoran Hall and begged a match. He had a lone cigarette which he had secreted in his jeans.

It was the first time The Hatchet writer had seen a Colonial warrior smoke during the season.

The first week of rushing ends with the sororities confronted by the problem of providing the required amount of entertainment on the required amount of money. The most popular solution of this is a luncheon in the sorority rooms. This is approved by all sororities, as it enables each one, by a little judicious loitering on the campus, to see just who is being entertained and when—though not why.

The freshmen seem to be more in favor of teas, as one can attend many teas in an afternoon, whereas a luncheon is so limiting. However, other types of party, though not quite so frequent, are widely varied. There are symptoms of a concerted effort on the part of the faculty, to regain—or gain—the attention of their classes by giving exams, but the continuous round of social events goes on undisturbed.

Phi Delta entertained a number of the freshmen girls at a taffy pull in their sorority rooms on Monday, October 10. These sororities always seem to be getting stuck up about something!

Oneda Brown was hostess to a number of rushees and the members of Alpha Delta Theta at bridge on Tuesday evening, October 11.

Pi Beta Phi gave an interesting and quite different bridge party on Wednesday, October 12. The bridge was played at several houses, and the refreshments were served afterwards at the sorority rooms. The rain apparently did not dampen the enthusiasm, as the party was declared a complete success.

Kappa Sigma departed from the usual line of entertainment with a good old-fashioned "weenie-roast" at a shack up the river on Tuesday, October 11. A big fire, a big moon and a good place to dance made the evening a most pleasant one. Professor and Mrs. Kayser chaperoned the party.

The pledges of Delta Tau Delta were guests at a dance given by the active members at the chapter house on Friday, October 14.

The Phi Mu's entertained a number of rushees at an original gypsy party at the home of Ann Sauer on Wednesday, October 12.

Alpha Nu Chapter, of the Kappa Alpha Order, announces the pledging of Charles Griffith and George J. Terry, Jr.

On Saturday, October 15, the Alpha Delta Pi's and a group of freshmen went to Great Falls on a picnic.

Chi Omega entertained at bridge at the home of Helen Walton on Thursday, October 13.

Alpha Epsilon Iota Medical Sorority initiated five members on Saturday, October 8, in the club rooms of the Women's Building. Those initiated were: Mary McFadyen, '30, Alma Jane Speer, '30, Gary Turner, '30, Katherine Kuder, '30 and Dr. Katherine G. Symonds '25. The initiation ceremonies were followed by a dinner at the Club St. Marks and a theater party at Keith's.

The interfraternity goat smoker held at the Sigma Chi Chapter house last Thursday night is one to be remembered.

Among those present were: President Marvin, Dean Doyle, Professor Kayser, Professor Croissant, and Dr. Bride, Corporation Counsel for the District of Columbia.

Zeta Tau Alpha entertained at a tea Saturday at the studio of Lieutenant Commander Clephane, Eighteenth and Columbia Road.

Kappa Alpha honored their parents at a tea at the Chapter House a week ago Sunday.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon is making extensive plans for a Bohemian Dance to be held at their house on October 28th. The dance, an annual affair and an original idea of the S. A. E's of Washington, will be costume and prizes will be awarded for the best-looking and for the most original get-ups. The house will be attractively decorated in a rustic setting, and the long-discarded bar-room will again be in evidence. Arrangements are in the hands of George Muth, chairman of the entertainment committee, Paul Crofts and William Licklider.

Mrs. Robert Griggs, of the Advisory Council of the Y. W. C. A. entertained members of the Y. W. C. A. at a tea at her home last Sunday afternoon.

Phi Alpha will hold a house dance at the Chapter House Saturday night, October 22. Tonight the founders of the fraternity will hold their annual smoker at the house.

Walter Ogus was the chapter delegate to the National Council meeting at Boston, Mass., October 15 and 16. He also attended the installation of the Chi Chapter at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

William Simons entertained members of the Tau Club and their guests last Friday evening at his home, 1332 Twenty-first Street N. W. Dancing and singing were enjoyed, and later in the evening refreshments were served.

POTENTIAL PROFS

No. 1—Cloyd Heck Marvin, Jr.

Underwood & Underwood.

A brown-eyed, yellow-haired cherub with an angelic smile greeted the Hatchet reporter from the regal heights of a highchair, when he called at the University White House out on Cleveland Avenue. This was Cloyd Heck, Jr., the "big boss" of the Presidential household.

Although friendly, he declined to be quoted on such topics as administrative procedure, academic freedom and tenure, and what not.

"How do you like George Washington?" the reporter queried hopefully. "I like Arizona much better," was the surprising answer. "They had so many nice sand-piles all over the campus that I could dig in. You can't get very far with that sort of thing on a concrete campus, you know." The justice of his remark admitted no argument.

"Do you intend to be a University President like your Dad when you grow up?" pursued the reporter.

"Not by a long shot," said Cloyd vigorously. "If I follow up my present learnings I shall probably drive a big fire hook-and-ladder wagon. And I'll have the man that rides on the back ring the bell every inch of the way, too!"

Dr. Brigham Makes Collection of Art

Series of Talks on "Art and Travel" to be Given at Persian Studio

After a tour of Europe and countries of the Near East, Dr. Gertrude R. Brigham returned to Washington in September in time for the opening of the University.

Dr. Brigham made a small collection of Oriental art objects which she plans to use to illustrate her course in Oriental Art History. Her trip included visits to Greece, Constantinople, Rhodes, Cyprus, Beirut, Damascus, Baalbek, Jerusalem, Haifa, Cairo, Egypt, and several other places. She visited some of the new Zionist colonies, camped at the pyramids under a full moon, and had other interesting experiences. "The titanic ruins of Baalbek, once a temple to the sun, seemed to me even grander than the Parthenon," Dr. Brigham said.

The Art Promoters Club welcomed Dr. Brigham at a tea in her new Persian studio at 1409 Twentieth Street N. W. A series of studio talks on "Art and Travel" will later be given here under the auspices of the club.

OFFICIAL UNIVERSITY NOTICES

Dean Rose will be at home to all women students on Wednesday, October 19, from 4.30 until 6.10 in the Women's Building.

Degrees will be conferred in the office of the President on Saturday next October 22, at 12:10.

MRS. HERBERT HOOVER TO ADDRESS ASSEMBLY

Freshmen Girls Hear Address on Pan-Hellenism at Assembly October 20

Mrs. Herbert Hoover will address the freshmen at the regular assembly for freshman women on Thursday, October 20. Mrs. Hoover's subject is "Pan-Hellenism." In her talk she will trace the origin, growth, and development of sororities. Information of this type is given to the freshman women to help them in their extra-curricular activities and in adjusting themselves to University life.

DEAN WILBUR SPEAKS TO MENORAH SOCIETY

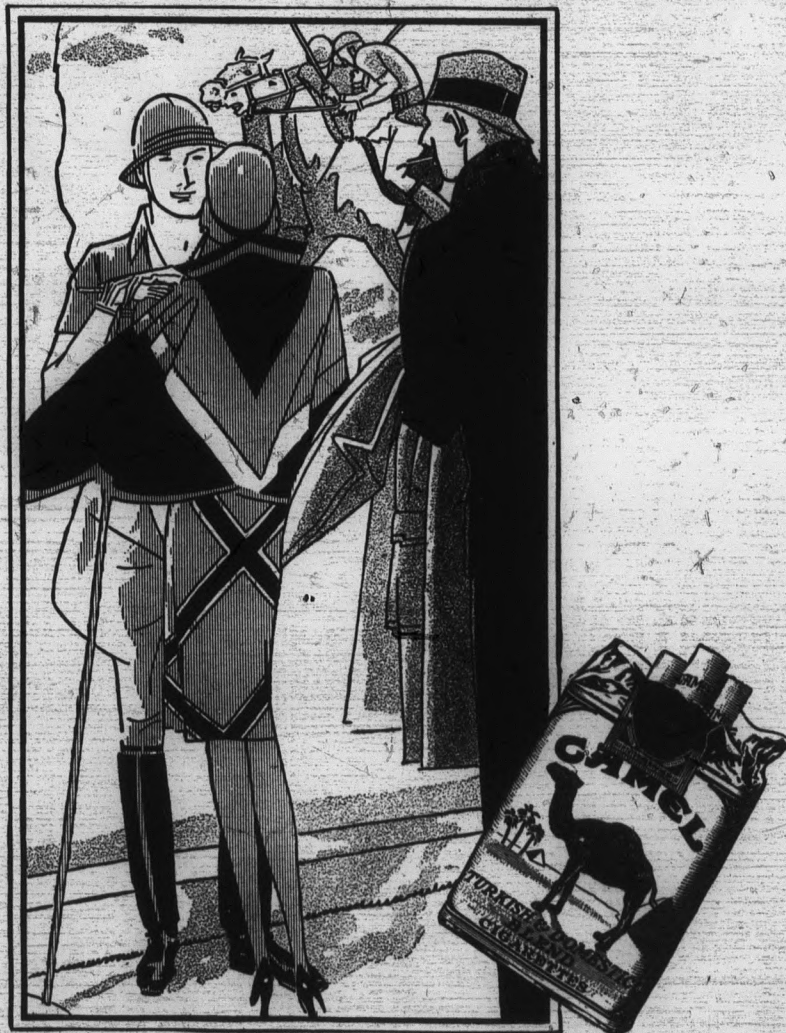

"The Jewish people have been materially successful; they have been spiritually wonderful," declared Dean Wilbur in an address to the members of the Menorah Society at their opening meeting held in Corcoran Hall on October 12. Dean Wilbur stressed the fact that the Jewish Biblical culture embodies the spirit that began our nation.

Rabbi Louis Schwaefel, of the Adas Israel Synagogue, also spoke. Jack Lightman presided.

Musical entertainment was furnished by a vocal duet given by the Calmas boys, several popular numbers were sung by Miss Beatrice Wolfe, and Helen Buchalter gave a piano solo. Dancing followed, with music furnished by the Novelette Orchestra.

It is a natural pride that Camel feels for its triumphs. Not only did it lead the field shortly after its introduction. It passed steadily on with each succeeding year until today it holds a place in public favor higher than any other smoke ever reached. Camel is supreme with modern smokers.

Obviously, there is a quality here that particular smokers appreciate. It is indeed the myriad qualities of perfection that are to be found in the choicest tobaccos grown. And the art of Nature is aided by a blending that unfolds each delicate taste and fragrance.

You will more than like Camels. You will find a solace in them every smoking hour. Their mildness and mellowness are an endless pleasure. "Have a Camel!"

Rutgers Falls Before Crummen 6 to 0

KAPPA SIG NAMED DIAMOND CHAMP OF GREEK LEAGUE

Defeats S. A. E., 3 to 2, For Interfraternity Baseball Championship

EVENLY-MATCHED TEAMS PROVIDE THRILLING GAME

Match Draws One of Largest Crowds in History of Interfraternity Contests

Kappa Sigma defeated Sigma Alpha Epsilon for the interfraternity baseball championship by the score of 3 to 2 in one of the best played games ever witnessed at George Washington University.

Sunday afternoon one of the largest crowds ever to attend an interfraternity match saw S. A. E. go down to a glorious defeat at the hands of Kappa Sigma. Although a postponed game from last year, both teams appeared to be in mid-season form.

The two teams were evenly matched, but a few errors by S. A. E. in the first inning gave Kappa Sigma a lead which they maintained throughout the game. Stull, S. A. E. pitcher, walked three men in this inning and two of these scored on a clean single by Alewine, center fielder for Kappa Sig.

Kappa Sig Scores

Bunching two hits and a walk in the fourth inning Kappa Sig scored the run which gave them the game. Spurred on by the scoring of their opponents in the fourth inning, S. A. E. came back in the fifth and gathered hits by Perry, Mitchell and Knapp to register their two runs. S. A. E. again threatened to overcome the lead in the last inning. Licklider singled and was sent to third with a long Texas leaguer by Perry. Sapp, pitching for Kappa Sigma struck out the next three men retiring the side, thus saving the day for his fraternity.

Victors and vanquished shook hands, declaring this to have been the best game that they had ever played in at the University. The sportsmanship of both fraternities is to be commented upon and shows the good fellowship established between the men's organization through intra-mural sports.

G. W. FOOTBALL TEAM OVERCOMES RUTGERS FOR 3RD WIN OF SEASON

Colonial Aggregation Holds Scarlet Team Scoreless In Hard-Fought Game At New Brunswick, New Jersey, Last Saturday Afternoon

IVAN STEHMAN, COLONIAL BACK, STARS IN GAME; TOUCHDOWN MADE EARLY IN THIRD QUARTER

Hatchettes Play Sterling Football, Using Only Fourteen Men as Compared With Manifold Substitutions of New Jerseyites; Tex Rosen is Outstanding Ground-Gainer for Rutgers

In a desperately fought battle the undefeated George Washington University eleven won a brilliant victory over the powerful Rutgers machine on Nielson Field at New Brunswick, New Jersey, last Saturday, by a 6 to 0 score. This game marked the third consecutive win for the Crum-coached Colonials, having previously overwhelmed New York City College and American University by the respective scores of 19 to 6 and 27 to 0. Although these teams were not "set-ups" it was left for the Scarlet of Rutgers to give the Hatchettes their first severe test of the season.

Ivan Stehman, versatile Colonial back, stands out pre-eminent among those who figured prominently in the fray. It was he who scored the lone touchdown. The game was not entirely Stehman's, however, for the line play of the Crummen in smothering the enemy offense was perfect. The front defense has learned to work as a unit and consequently has held its opponents scoreless. The six points made by the New York City College can not be checked up against the linemen.

G. W. Backfield Fast

The other backfield men, "Babe" Clapper, "Shorty" Sanders, "Chalky" Lopeman and Henry Sapp, continually picked their openings with remarkable skill much to the chagrin of the determined Scarlet. The punting of Sanders tends to prove that this young man is just about the "find" of the season from a Colonial standpoint. Prior to this game the "too work" was executed almost exclusively by the redoubtable Stehman.

Rutgers had Tex Rosen as its hero. Tex showed clever generalship both on the offense and defense, but his teammates seemed to lack that essential punch which distinguished the victors from the vanquished.

Rutgers Lacks Overhead Game

Both the Scarlet and the Buff and Blue displayed a great defense, especially in the front rank, but the former was lacking in the overhead game which it was forced to resort to as a final gesture of desperation in the last quarter.

From the opening whistle the result was in doubt with both aggregations working on equal terms. The first real scoring threat came in the few remaining minutes of the first half when the Hatchettes started a march from their

CO-ED TENNIS PLAYERS REACH SECOND ROUND

Tournament Matches Well Under Way; Best Players to be Chosen For Varsity

The Women's Tennis Tournament is now well under way through the second round of games. The number of contestants has been reduced from forty-four to twenty girls and competitive spirit is still running high.

The completed matches of the first round are as follows:
Berryman defeated Phillips, Wilson defeated Warren, Wells defeated Gray, Morris defeated Kyle, Hudson defeated Ehrmantrout, Weckler defeated Sedgwick, Moore defeated Boch, Crouch defeated Wellser, Asmuth defeated Waller, Miles defeated Rosenthal, Wilson defeated Warren, Cates defeated Teche, Heare defeated Boykin, Hurd defeated Steele, Butler defeated Parsons, McGregor defeated Ernest, and Peterson defeated Palmer.

The games of the second round of the tournament which have been completed are:
Ryan defeated Berryman, Moore defeated Loeffler, Miles defeated Asmuth, Heare defeated Cates, Butler defeated Morris, McGregor defeated Peterson, and Hurd defeated Sime.

One game of the third round has been played, in which Ryan was defeated by Davis. Matches are scheduled for the coming week between Hudson and Weckler, Wells and Crumley, Crouch and Murphy, Miles and Tomlin and Turnbull and Wilson.

The winner of the tournament will be awarded a cup and the group of girls which demonstrates the best tennis during the entire tournament will be selected for the varsity tennis team.

All girls are asked by the manager, Peg Loeffler, to play off their matches.

FRESHMAN SQUAD DOWNS ST. ALBANS

Frosh Eleven Defeats Episcopalians 37-0; Capt. Smith Displays "Varsity" Form

TERRY SHOWS FINE SKILL

Capt. Smith Now Pointing Yearlings For Future Games Which Include Strong Elevens

George Washington Frosh football team gave a good demonstration of the difference between a freshman eleven and a prep school team last Friday when it downed the St. Albans School by the score of 37 to 0. It may be said that the figures are a poor indication of the strength of the two teams.

Captain Smith displayed a form that will go on the varsity next season when he showed the way with nineteen of the total points. He went over for three of the touchdowns and kicked one of the single pointers to complete the day's work. Terry at quarterback was one of the real threats of the yearlings throughout, generalizing his charges with fine skill.

Game Is "Feeler"

With this game for a "feeler," Coach Avis will be able to judge the ability of the Freshmen, and point them for the future games which include several good freshmen elevens around town.

The line-up and score follows:

St. Albans	Pos.	Geo. Wash. Fr.

Dope Gives Sigma Chi Best Chance In Its League, Contest Doubtful Elsewhere

PLAY ENDS THANKSGIVING

Kappa Sigma and S. A. E. Finalists Last Year, Will Meet Again Early In Series

Sigma Chi stands the chance of its history to cover itself with glory, while on another corner a grand scramble is forecast, with the drawing of lots for the 1927-28 interfraternity basketball series.

The N Street cagemen are grouped with several of the fraternity teams which according to dope are weaker, such as Kappa Alpha and Acacia, while on the other hand some of the strongest Greek outfits meet each other in League Two.

Drawing was made at the second meeting of the Interfraternity Council, held Sunday morning at the Acacia house. A schedule devised by Tom Smith of Sigma Chi, chairman of the athletic committee, was adopted.

By virtue of this, play will start on October 22, and will terminate on November 16, when the championship contest will be decided.

Leagues are Named

Kappa Alpha, Theta Delta Chi, Sigma Chi, Acacia, and Sigma Phi Epsilon constitute League One, while Phi Sigma Kappa, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu, Theta Upsilon Omega, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon form the other group.

COLONIALS POINT FOR COMING TILT AGAINST MAROON

Saturday's Battle With Fordham Is One of Biggest Games Of Year

LAST WEEK'S LINEUP EXPECTED TO START

Outcome of Game Will be Watched With Interest; N. Y. U. Downs Fordham

Followers of the Buff and Blue, elated by three victorious battles, are priming for the next conquest, the meeting with the strong Fordham eleven. The tilt with the Maroon team, scheduled for next Saturday, will be staged at Central Stadium, and is expected to be the biggest home game of the season, with the student body attending practically en masse, and school spirit running rampant.

"Buff" and "Blue," newly adopted mascots, famous for the canine beauty of pure-bred bull pups, and representing bulldog determination personified, will uphold the team on the sidelines, supported by a volunteer cheering section wearing the much-talked-of rooting caps.

Colonial Points Total 52 to 6. The Colonial warriors go into Saturday's game inspired by fifty-two points annexed and only one touchdown scored against them, and that through a pass completed by the City College of New York in the first game of the season, which the Crummen took, 19 to 6. The second game was with American University, which team the Colonial gridmen vanquished, 27 to 0.

In this game the weak points of the Buff and Blue eleven were brought out and afterward corrected by Coach "Maud" Crum to an extent which enabled the G. W. aggregation to go through the line of the Scarlet Rutgers eleven for a 6 to 0 victory. This game, played on the home field of the New Brunswick school, placed George Washington well in the limelight of eastern athletic activity.

Fordham Trimmed by N. Y. U.

Fordham comes to Washington with a strong team, but one which the powerful New York University demolished last Saturday with a 32-0 score. Some costly fumbles on the part of the Maroon backfield accounted for half of the score, and terrific line plunges by Briante, famous New York backfield man, accounted for the rest. This would give the impression that the Maroon line is their weakest link, which should mean some scoring for the Hatchettes, judging by the achievements of the line and backfield in the Rutgers game.

From the kicking standpoint, the Crum disciples have nothing to fear, for Stehman has developed an unerring toe for the fourth down play, and Shorty Sanders, a new find in the booting field, has proved himself no slouch. Coach Maud Crum is promising the G. W. fans some new plans which he has been holding for the Fordham game, having depended

University Officials Give Their Recommendations For Approaching Pep-Smoker

"I am anxious that the men of our student body register 100 per cent at the Fordham smoker to show a 100 per cent backing for a team that has to date, and will continue to have, a 100 per cent record of victories for the season of 1927-28. Each man is not only invited but urged to be present."

CLOYD HECK MARVIN,
President of the University.

"The Smoker on Friday is the first All-University Men's Get-Together. Faculty members and students of all departments should allow nothing to stand in the way of attendance at this evening of wholesome entertainment and general good-fellowship. Every body come!"

H. G. DOYLE,
Dean of Men.

"Amateur athletics in college seems like our Constitution in a 'more perfect union.' Unless we all play the game, the members of the team and the supporters of the team, there are personal sources for success not yet made available, and the success that depends on such support and accord is the success that is important to the University. Follow with your support meetings and smokers and games and teams."

WILLIAM ALLEN WILBUR,
Dean of Columbian College.

"We hope that all men of the School of Medicine, faculty, as well as students, will find it possible to attend the all-university men's smoker Friday evening."

WILLIAM CLINE BORDEN,
Dean of the School of Medicine.

"The smoker and 'mixer' should be an occasion of interest and value to all students in the University, from Freshmen to graduates, as well as to members of the Faculty. Personally, I look forward with pleasure to being present."

GEO. N. HENNING,
Dean of the Graduate School.

"I shall be there."

J. R. LAPHAM,
Dean of the School of Engineering.

"Yes, I agree that all members of the University, faculty as well as students, will profit by coming out to the pep meeting on Friday evening. It will encourage the football squad, it will arouse University spirit, and it will stimulate the health, vigor and comradeship of all concerned."

W. C. RUEDIGER,
Dean of the School of Education.

HUDDLE SYSTEM TO BE DROPPED BY UNIV. OF PA.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (IP).—The University of Pennsylvania football team has decided that it will not use the huddle system of play this year unless the cheering of the stands becomes so loud as to disrupt the calling of signals by the quarterback. The coaches found after the first few days of practice that the plays went smoother with the old signal calling system.

Free Eats, Cheering, and Boxing Matches to Feature Pep Meeting

Plans For Big Get-Together Before Fordham Game Completed; Speeches By Prexy, Doyle and Ragatz; Rooters' Caps Necessary To Obtain Choice Seats At Game

One great grand stag smoker and pep meeting for all the men and faculty of all the schools of George Washington University will burst wide open this Friday night at the gym, the night before the undefeated Colonials clash with Fordham at Central Stadium the following day, plans made by Dean Henry Grattan Doyle revealed yesterday.

All the men of the schools of the University, including the faculties, will be present to root and cheer the team to victory on the morrow, "Joe College" Olson, chairman of the entertainment committee, has promised The Hatchet.

Everything's all set, Chairman Olson declared, for the biggest pep night in the history of the school. Plans, with a few polishing touches, are complete and everything is in readiness.

Biggest "Stag" Night

Free eats are to be provided everyone. Hot dogs and cider will be passed around. Short speeches by prominent faculty members are promised. Boxing matches, which, it is rumored, will bring out on the resin men of championship caliber, are to be included in the program of entertainment. Cheering is to rock the walls of the gym. In short, it will be G. W. U.'s biggest stag night, says Olson.

Rooters' caps will be on sale also, he has intimated. The caps are blue with a buff border and button and the school letters on the front. They will sell at 35 cents each.

It is whispered around the campus that Freshmen will not be the only ones to buy caps. The movement, backed by the sophomore vigilance committee, the G. W. Club, the Pep Club and other campus organizations, to permit only wearers of caps to the choice center section of the stands at the game Saturday afternoon has gathered momentum the past few days and has flowered into actual fact. The center section, according to plans, will be the nucleus of G. W.'s first real cheering section, and no one without a cap will be admitted. Hence it will not be surprising to see a staid and settled Senior purchase one of the rooters' caps for the following day.

Short, Snappy Speeches

Speeches by Prexy, Profs. Doyle and Ragatz and other faculty members are expected. They may be short, but they will be snappy and full of pep, it is rumored.

Boxing will be an attractive part of the entertainment. Three exhibition bouts, each consisting of three two-minute rounds, are to be put on in a full-sized standard ring which has been loaned through the courtesy of the Racquet Club.

The main bout will be between Francis Tompkins and an unknown, whose fighting nom de plume is "Striker Murphy," about whom rumors fly thick and fast. It is said that he has consented to box despite this injury. It is also said that he will try to get in his old form with only a week of training. He is a welter and will give Tompkins possibly ten pounds.

Billy Whipp, probably the most famous and oldest exponent of the game in the region, will referee the bouts. He is expected to enlarge on a few poignant points of the game before or after the bouts. He has himself fought Freddie Welsh, when in his prime, and won by popular decision. He has also fought Bennie Leonard.

Alben E. Olson, president of the Senior Class of Columbian College, will introduce the speakers of the evening, and it is thought that the Glee Club will be on hand to furnish music for the occasion.

The committee which has been working on the plans for the smoker will meet in Dean Doyle's office at 12.10 today (Wednesday) to go over the final plans for the event. This committee is made up of the following men: A. E. Olson, Dan Eberly, Darrell Crain, Robert Copes, Porter Strother, Campbell Starr, George Souther, Ford Young, Bradford Swope, F. M. Tompkins, George Hoeft, Verne O. MacDonald, Don Iglehart, George von Dachenhausen, Jerry Sickler, and Dick Wilkinson.

$250 PRIZE FOR ESSAY ON PEACE PROMOTION

Research, Accuracy and Originality of Essays to be Considered by Committee

The Weddell Prize of $250.00 will be awarded the student who submits the best essay on the promotion of peace, according to Dr. Charles E. Hill, of the Political Science Department. All students registered for degrees in any school of the University may compete. The essay should be not less than 5,000 words in length and should include a table of contents, footnotes and bibliography. The essays are due May 1, 1928.

The committee in charge consists of Oscar B. Hunter of the School of Medicine; Charles S. Collier of the Law School; and Charles E. Hill of Columbian College, chairman.

In reaching a decision on the merits of the essays the committee will consider research, accuracy and originality, together with clearness of expression and literary form. Those who intend to compete should leave their names with the chairman of the committee.

The following subjects are suggested:

1. The Rights of Aliens in the United States.
 2. The Responsibility for Mob Violence in Different Countries.
 3. What Forces Hold the British Empire Together?
 4. To What Extent Has the United States Cooperated with the League of Nations?
 5. An Evaluation of the Work of Peace Promoting Agencies.
 6. What are the Causes for the Turmoil in China?
 7. The Pan American Policy of the United States.
 8. The Balkans as a Focal Point for European Diplomacy.
 9. The Settlement of the Difficulties due to the Peace Treaties in the Balkans.
 10. The Work of the Council of the League of Nations.
- Miss Margaret Sprigg Poole won the prize last year with an essay on "The United States as a Mediator in Latin America."

MORE TENORS NEEDED AT ONCE IN GLEE CLUB

Director Harmon May be Forced to Reduce Size of Club Unless More Tenors Report Immediately

After several rehearsals the Men's Glee Club is showing good progress, but the shortage of tenors assumes a threatening aspect.

Tenors have always been the hardest to find. Now, due to the loss of several of last year's best tenors and to the small number that has reported to fill out this section so far this year, Director Harmon may be forced to cut down the size of the club in order to have the balanced effect so necessary in glee club singing. It is hoped that this preponderance of lower voices will not necessitate such action.

All men singing first or second tenor who are to the least extent interested in the club are urged to report on Thursday, October 20, or on the following Tuesday, to Director Harmon at Corcoran Hall 1, between 7 and 8:30 p. m.

At a date to be announced shortly the club will have its annual get-together smoker. Last year this was held at the Thomas Circle Club and proved to be one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the year.

University Given Dept. Of Agriculture Through Error of Local Paper

The University is in a dilemma—it doesn't know whether it should feel complimented or insulted.

It's all because a linotype man or a copy-reader slipped up, and allowed the statement to appear in a local morning paper that under the new reorganization policy, Professor Norris Ingersoll Crandall, M. Arch., is to be head of the Department of Agriculture.

Whether the aforementioned newspaper believed that the University was in need of such a department, and took the opportunity offered to establish an agricultural branch under the main head of Arts and Sciences, even if the department could exist only in the mind of the newspaper and its staff, is doubtful.

The more common view seems to be that the architects were closer to being farmers than the members of any other department, and that transition from architecture to agriculture involves the change of only three letters anyhow.

Further, campus humorists point out that the architects work with clay sometimes, as do farmers, and that while the wearing of green neckties by the freshmen of that department does not necessarily make them "hicks," green is most natural to the country, and the frosh might be taken for agriculturalists from the provinces.

Meanwhile, the controversy rages on.

who follow the series, is the fact that Kappa Alpha and Acacia, who last year fought for the "cellar championship" will meet again, and S. A. E. and Kappa Sig, finalists last year, will be in the same league.

None of the League Two teams are weak. Phi Sigma Kappa and Theta Upsilon Omega played to a close score last year. Until the last season, the T. U. O. contingent had been a negligible quantity, but it proved its mettle by winning two-thirds of its games.

Kappa Sigma is weakened by the loss of several good men, including Tribble, the flashy little forward.

Most of the teams, however, have the unknown quantity of this year's pledges to contend with, and the series is anybody's series.

CO-ED G. W. CLUB PLANS WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSN.

Project Would Coordinate Various Types of Sports Into A Uniform Organization

INTERCOLLEGIATE GAME SCHEDULE WILL BE CUT

Freshman Women Urged to Take Part in the Various Sports Offered by University

Plans for a Women's Athletic Association were discussed by the Women's G. W. Club at their first meeting held in the Women's Building, October 5.

Julia Denning, who was sent as a delegate from George Washington to the Athletic Conference of American College Women last year, spoke on the advantages of a Woman's Athletic Association. Such an association would be open not only to girls who have won their letters, but to all those girls who come out regularly to practices, participate in class games, and would thus coordinate the various types of sports.

Intercollegiate Games Cut.

The associations in other colleges are cutting down the number of intercollegiate games played and building up intra-mural interests. Julia pointed out that this year, the women's basketball team will have four outed out that this year, the women's side games instead of seven, as last year.

Plans are now being made to organize such an association at George Washington and the women's letter club hopes to have an active share in making it a reality.

Myrtle Crouch was appointed to talk to the Freshmen in their gymnasium classes on the subject of Women's Athletics and to urge them to come out and take some share in the various sports offered in the University. The first of these talks was given on Wednesday, October 12, and greater interest among the Freshman is hoped for.

Name Publicity Manager

The publicity manager for women's sports, Eugenia Cuvillier, was elected. Verna Parsons and Betty Clark are to make arrangements for pictures to be taken of the intercollegiate games. Virginia Blackstone and Mary Erwin have had a bulletin board for the G. W. Club placed in the Women's Building. All news of meeting and other business will be put there where all members will be able to find it.

The Activity Cup given each year to the Senior girl who has done the most toward promoting activities in the University was awarded to Eryntrude Valden, who also was awarded the medal given by Pi Beta Phi for activities.

A meeting is being held tonight, October 19, at 7 o'clock.

LATE NEWS BULLETIN

The Fordham-G. W. game will be held at Central Stadium at one o'clock on Saturday, according to news just received from Dr. Daniel Borden, Chairman of Athletics.

What do you carry?

No matter how heavy a program you carry, the addition of a Lifetime[®] pen will lighten it. Guaranteed to write—not for this school term merely, or until the four-year grind is done—but forever, as long as you live. It is the pen that spends the most days in the writing hand and the least in repair shops. It costs more because it is worth more. And the Titan pencil is a twin for dependable writing service. Both are favorites with college men and women everywhere.

DRAMATIC STAFF HOLDS TRYOUTS; DIRECTORS TALK

Production Work To Be Started
As Soon As Positions
Filled

SELECTION OF COACH TO BE MADE AT ONCE

Assistants Will Be Appointed By the Board Members After Meeting
Tonight

Tryouts for positions on the staff of the Dramatic Association will take place tonight in Corcoran Hall, Room 1, at 8 o'clock. This meeting is planned primarily for those interested in production work, as the cast tryouts will come only after the play has been selected and active work has started on the plans.

Members of the Board of Directors will meet the students who are interested in participating in this year's work and will speak to them of the nature of the branch to which they have to be adapted. These members of the board who will conduct the tryouts are Edward Moulton, Betty Wilbank, Marion Campbell, Fern Henninger, Max Tandler, Kenneth Years, and George Spangler.

Those who attend this meeting will have bright prospects of obtaining desirable positions, bearing in mind the comparatively recent reorganization of the Dramatic Council, and the important parts that have, as yet, not been filled.

Electrician Needed

One of these is chief electrician. There will be plenty of work in store for those who are interested in settings, properties, costumes, publicity, advertising, programs, and other divisions.

In the event that a classical play should be produced where revision of script would be necessary, any student who could demonstrate his playwright ability would be a particularly valued member of the association. At the same time, any original effort by a student would be considered, and it is believed by the Board of Directors that such a student can be found here.

Numerous fields have been studied for the selection of this year's play, among them being the classical comedies of Terence and Plautus and the Continental types, Russian, Hindu and others. After the meeting tonight, the active work of the association will begin, and with the aid of the assistants, the next step will be the selection of a definite play and the coach who will direct.

Casting of the drama and the naming of a downtown theater, at which it will be presented, will come soon after.

"IOWA SHEIK" AUTHOR CAUSES CONTROVERSY

Thornell Barnes, Grinnell Grad
Writes Troublesome Article
For Student Magazine

(By New Student Service.)

GRINNELL, Iowa.—"I can just picture the sheik that wrote that piece, his hair looking like a looking glass (not that we don't like nice combed hair, we surely do, but not if the dirt is beneath the 'glue'), then a cigarette in the corner of his mouth, and white pants on (for somebody else to clean) but that is culture, isn't it?"

Thornell Barnes, Grinnell, '30, is the Iowa sheik for whom the unflattering imaginary portrait was drawn. Mr. Barnes is guilty of writing "Culture Waves from KFNW" for the Tanager, Grinnell's student bi-monthly literary magazine. The article describes, with a sly chuckle now and then, Mr. Henry Field's broadcasting station at Shenandoah, Iowa, which sends forth a profitable mixture of business, culture, and religious appeal.

When the article appeared, one portion of Mr. Field's radio audience rushed to his defense.

Mr. Field himself mailed a letter to President John H. T. Main, roundly denouncing Grinnell College. Another contingent of the radio listener applauded the article. The controversy spread to Omaha, to Des Moines, and finally an item appeared in the New York Times. And when the smoke of battle had cleared, it was evident that the supporters of Mr. Barnes more than neutralized the friends of Mr. Field.

All of which provided excellent advertising for the Tanager, which is an up-and-coming student magazine whose index page is usually well garnished with "names." Along with the controversial student sketch there appeared in the September issue an article on "China's Revolution," by Felix Mort, author of Our Far-Eastern Assignment; another on "What the Farmer Needs," by Edwin G. Meredith, editor of Successful Farming.

CO-ED DEBATERS WILL MEET WEST VA. TEAM

Monroe Doctrine is Topic of December Debate

Announcement has been made by Ruth Kernan, manager of Women's Debating, that the team will hold its first debate of the year with the University of West Virginia, early in December. The subject, The Monroe Doctrine, has been decided upon, but no further details have been arranged.

Tryouts will be held about the middle of November. Two years ago, the George Washington team defeated West Virginia, debating the negative side of the question, Resolved, That the pending child labor amendment to the Constitution should be ratified.

PIE PLATES SWIPED 90 YEARS AGO RETURNED

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (IP).—Some ninety years ago a member of the Class of 1841, at Harvard, stole a pie from the college dining hall. Freshman like, he took the plate as well.

The plate reposed on his table for the remainder of his college career and then went home with him.

This last spring, nearly a century later, the descendants of the pie-thief presented the plate to President Lowell, of Harvard, who was so struck with the design thereon that he has had a new Harvard Plate patterned after it, to be the official dinner plates

Sigma Nu Will Hold Convention In Dec.

Plan to Accommodate 600 at Mayflower Hotel December 28-31; Contemplate Trip to V.M.I.

The biennial convention of the Sigma Nu Fraternity will be held at the Mayflower Hotel, December 28-31, inclusive.

Plans for the convention are being made by the Washington alumni, headed by Robert F. Fleming. Other members of the committee are G. H. Chasmar, H. F. Enlows, Frank L. Yates, and Richard E. Shands.

The local alumni are being assisted by the Delta Pi Chapter of the University in planning the convention, which will be attended by delegates of the 93 chapters, the general office staff from Indianapolis, and alumni from all parts of the country. Plans are being made to entertain 600 visiting members.

Among features in contemplation is the pilgrimage to Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, where the fraternity was founded in 1869.

ART PROMOTERS WILL GIVE "CLEO" BANQUET

Annual Dinner of Club to be Held
November 5 at The Blackstone;
$1.25 a Plate

An Egyptian Banquet will be given as the annual dinner of the Art Promoters Club, on Saturday evening, November 5, at 8 o'clock, The Blackstone. Tickets are $1.25. Reservations should be made at once through the Secretary, Miss Mittle Burch, The Portner Apartments, North 1421, as space is limited.

A program of speeches and entertainment has been arranged. Election of officers will be held, and dancing will follow the dinner.

The club has already arranged its study courses for 1927-28. Five courses of twelve studio talks each are offered which may be taken singly or together. Art and Travel, The Art of Expression, Decorative Arts, Costume Design and Style in Dress, and Dancing comprise the series. Fees are $10.00 for a series of twelve lectures, $1.00 for single talks, and $25.00 for any three courses, 36 lessons. Special terms are offered to members of the Art Promoters Club.

Anyone interested in becoming a member of the club should see Miss Burch or Dr. Brigham, 1409 Twentieth Street, N. W.

CO-ED TO RUN FOR MAYOR

CONCORD, N. H. (IP).—Helen "Gwen" Jones, twenty-four-year-old co-ed of the University of New Hampshire, has launched her campaign for mayor of Concord. She will run against three Democrats, all men. She has announced her slogans as: "Not pre-election promises, post-election action," and "Concord, the finest city in which to live, and a square deal for every inhabitant."

CONCERT COUPON GIVEN BY WASHINGTON OPERA

All Students and Teachers Offered
Special Advantage for Series of Recitals Here

As a concession to teachers and students comes a coupon offered by The Washington National Opera. This special educational coupon is worth one dollar when presented by teachers or students to apply on a membership in the Saturday Evening Concert Club. The total membership cost is five dollars, but with the coupon it is only four. Coupons may be obtained from either Dean Rose or Dean Doyle and presented at the box office of The Washington National Opera, at the Arthur Jordan Piano Company, 1239 G Street.

The Saturday Evening Concert Club was organized by a group of prominent men and women, under the auspices of The Washington National Opera, to bring to its membership world famous artists at community prices.

These artists, whose merit is unquestioned, will appear in Washington this season only for The Washington National Opera. Hence Saturday Evening Concert Club members will be particularly favored by their membership, as they will hear these singers at most of their few performances here, and hear them at a materially reduced rate.

The schedule as announced for the first series of concerts is given below: November 19, a joint recital by Margery Maxwell, soprano, and Jacques Jolas, pianist.

December 3, Richard Crooks, tenor. January 7, London String Quartette. January 21, Luella Mellus, coloratura.

February 11, Grand Opera Quartette of Famous Artists, in "Great Moments from the Opera"—Dorothy Spence, Grace Leslie, Paul Althouse, and Ivan Ivantsoff.

G. W. EPISCOPAL CLUB HEARS DR. McCALLUM

Program for Coming Year Arranged
by Anglicans

Members of the Episcopal Club held their first meeting of the year last Thursday evening in Corcoran Hall. President Marvin, who was scheduled to address the gathering, was unable to be present; in his absence, Dr. McCallum, of St. Paul's Church, led the discussion.

According to the program for the coming year, meetings, either business, discussion, or social, will be held every two weeks. A benefit card party will be given the first part of November; with the co-operation of the Episcopal Club of the University of Maryland. The annual convention of the Tri-Diocesan Council will be held here in February.

The next meeting will be held in Corcoran Hall, Room 17, on October 27, at 8 p. m. All students in the University who are interested are invited to attend.

G. W. Co-Ed Chosen Miss Prince Georges

Annabelle Lloyd to Represent Prince
Georges County at Road Opening October 22

Annabelle Lloyd, a senior in Teachers' College, has been selected to represent Prince Georges County in the celebration incident to the formal opening of the Robert Crain Highway in Upper Marlboro, October 22.

Annabelle, as Miss Prince Georges County, will be one of five young women representing southern Maryland Counties at the opening of this road, which will connect Baltimore and southern Maryland.

In the three and one-half years she has attended George Washington she has been prominent in dramatics. She took the leading role in the Troubadours' annual musical comedy, "Just a Kiss," which was presented in 1926. The same year she appeared in the title role of "Belinda," the Junior play.

SPEEDY CO-ED MUST WALK

OAKLAND, Calif. (IP).—Peggy Bennett, 19, pretty co-ed at the University of California, will have to ride a train to the Stanford-California game on November 19, unless she can prevail upon some obliging male football fan to give her a lift.

Peggy was late to class the other day so she speeded her automobile 33 miles an hour through the campus. The judge impounded her car until November 25.

"Please, judge, make it November 19, because I need the car to go to the Stanford game then," pleaded Miss Peggy Bennett.

"Well, it's just too bad, but November 25 stands," said the judge.

NEW MATH CLUB MEETS

The first meeting of the newly-organized Mathematics Club was held on October 6. The president, Michael Goldberg, gave a talk on "The Platonic and Archimedean Solids" which was illustrated with models of the solids discussed. The club will meet every other Thursday at 8 p. m. in Corcoran Hall, Room 21. The next meeting will be held on October 20. All undergraduates and graduates who are interested in mathematics are urged to attend.

AVUKAH HOLDS RECEPTION

The reunion of the Avukah, Tuesday, October 4, was in the form of a freshman reception.

The meeting was opened by a speech from the former president, Ben Henkin, before he handed over the office to the incoming president, Isadore Lavine, who then gave an explanation of the activities of the Avukah.

A musical program followed, in which Anna Donzis, Edith Greenburg, Harry Shatz, Sophie Snyder, and Rosaline Rosett participated.

At the close of the program refreshments were served.

COLUMBIAN DEBATERS WILL HEAR VARSITY

Veteran Verbalists Will Debate Evening of October 21 on Value of Pacifism

The Varsity Debating Squad will speak before the weekly meeting of the Columbian Debating Society, Friday, October 21, on the question: Resolved, "That this country should adopt a policy of absolute pacifism." The international debate between a squad from Great Britain and the G. W. Varsity debates, to be presented November 18, is on this subject, and the discussion before the Debating Society will serve as a preliminary exercise for the official debate.

The affirmative will be supported by Ray Harris, who was a close placer in the tryouts for the approaching Great Britain parley; R. I. Parsons, former Varsity debater; and W. S. Simpson, former president of the Columbian Society. The negative will be upheld by the Varsity teams, William Williamson, John L. Seymour, and James Kirkland.

At the last meeting of the society, October 14, the question, Resolved, "That it pays to advertise," was decided in favor of the affirmative. Additional phases of advertising were discussed by the audience. Dr. Farnham, head of the Public Speaking Department, and coach of the Varsity team, complimented the club on its work, and prophesied a close relationship between varsity ranks and the society.

Future debates were chosen for the winter program, and will be announced before each meeting. It is planned that everyone should have an opportunity to participate in one argumentative contest.

CUTS HAIR TO MAKE LOANS

EMORY UNIVERSITY, Ga. (IP).—To provide the students with a good hair-cut and a loan fund is the double purpose of a newly purchased barber shop on the campus of Emory University.

G. H. Mew, treasurer of the university, purchased the shop, and promised the best hair-cut in town. Then, when the shop has been brought to a paying position, the proceeds therefrom will be placed in trust as a fund from which needy students may borrow for college expenses.

The shop is showing university loyalty, also, by using only hair tonic which is manufactured by an alumnus of the school.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The Girls' Glee Club held its first meeting of the year on Monday, October 17. Although tryouts have already been given, Miss Wentworth will still be glad to hear anyone who has an especially good voice. Altos are particularly in demand.

A large number of girls is out for the club this year and they are planning to give several performances round town. A wonderful opportunity is offered for training in part singing.

HONOR COLUMBIAN WOMEN FOUNDER AT FIRST MEETING

Miss Hazelton Reads Sketch of Miss Louise Connolly Who Started Organization

SOCIETY FOUNDED AT MUNROE'S SUGGESTION

Since 1894 Has Worked for Good of University and in Interests of Women Students

The following sketch in honor of Miss Louise C. Connolly, one of the founders of Columbian Women, who died last July, was read by Miss Hazelton at the opening meeting of the organization, held October 4, 1927, in the Trustees' Room in Corcoran Hall:

"The organization of The Columbian Women was the beginning of a new era both for the University and for women students, to whom the Columbian College, Corcoran Scientific and Medical Schools had opened their doors. Previous to this time personal contact of pupils in one school with those in another was the exception rather than the rule, but the organization of a general society to which all the University women were eligible, and which had for one of its aims the advancement of women both outside and within collegiate circles, drew them closer in the common cause, led to a broader outlook, new and valuable friendships and inaugurated a social plane that heretofore had not existed.

Renders Service

"With the second object for which The Columbian Women was founded, that of promotion of the interests of the University, was born a new relation with their Alma Mater.

"Time has welded closer this relationship, each necessary to the other and each appreciative of the precious bond. The years, full of accomplishment, have proven the integrity of purpose which actuates our women in their valuable service.

"It was Dr. Charles E. Munroe who, in 1894, conceived the idea of a women's society and he entrusted the mission of putting his plan into operation to Miss Louise C. Connolly and Miss Carl Garrison, students in the Corcoran Scientific School. How successfully his plan was carried out, we have but to read in our annals of the many years Miss Connolly was the leading spirit and it is in remembrance of her and her efforts that we are reviewing the past.

"Miss Connolly was a Washingtonian by birth and received her education in both private and public schools, graduating from Wilson Normal in 1879 and later from the Corcoran Scientific School of Columbian, now George Washington University.

Taught Ten Years

"For 10 years she taught in the Barrett, Force and Dennison Schools, was transferred to Business High School as teacher of English, and finally, in 1906, resigned to become Assistant Superintendent of Schools at Newark, N. J.

"For two years she was Superintendent of Schools at Summit, N. J., and later returning to Newark, she held the office of Educational Expert for the Newark Public Library, one of the duties of her office being that of lecturer at the Metropolitan Museum of Fine Arts in New York, as well as the Library Association. She was a geographer of note, collaborating in the preparation of a geography.

"She was also interested in the political world and aided in the advancement of women through women's societies. Her stories were published by magazines and just prior to her death she had finished a novel, a story of Washington life of perhaps 50 years ago, which is now being made ready for publication by the MacMillan Publishing Company.

"Miss Connolly was a splendid organizer, a fine teacher and disciplinarian, and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. While her membership in The Columbian Women lapsed after she took up her residence in other cities, the members of our organization may well feel a pride and ownership in one to whom their society is indebted for its being, and were it possible for Miss Connolly to know of the wonderful expansion and enthusiastic efforts of those who have adhered so conscientiously to her ideals she would feel that her dreams for the University had more than come true."

DENNIS ENTERTAINED AT FAREWELL DINNER

Is Guest of Honor of Hatchet Business Staff at Club St. Marks on October 14

Milton L. Dennis, retiring business manager of The Hatchet, who left yesterday for Paris on government business, was the guest of honor at a farewell dinner given him by the members of The Hatchet business staff at the Club St. Marks last Friday evening.

During the course of the evening, an automatic cigarette lighter of the latest type was presented to "Denny" by the staff as a parting gift. Presentation was made by Rolston Lyon, newly appointed business manager. Dennis, in accepting the lighter, made perhaps the shortest acceptance speech on record when he said, "I have no words." Appointments to the business staff for the coming semester were announced by Rolston Lyon. They are as follows: Allen G. Evans, assistant business manager, Harold T. Jenkins, circulation manager, Sturgis G. Bates, first assistant circulation manager, Frank Kreglow, who was previously appointed as advertising manager, completes the administrative portion of the staff.

Joviality was the keynote of the evening, and it is reported that the patrons of the club were startled at the version of "Hail to the Buff and Blue," as rendered by the dinner guests. Following the dinner, the staff members adjourned to a downtown theater, and after that an extended automobile tour of the city was made as a sort of a farewell sight-seeing trip.

Among those present were: Rolston Lyon, Frank Kreglow, Harold T. Jenkins, Fred W. Schultz, Richard C. Hill, Howard Baggett, Sturgis G. Bates, Allen G. Evans, J. H. Edmonston, Norman H. Conner, C. Oscar Berry, and F. G. Fawcett.

CHURCHILL TO SPEAK TO POLY SCI CLUB

The International Relations Club will meet in Corcoran Hall, Room 27, on Thursday evening, October 20 at 8:15. Mrs. Pauline Babb Burd will preside. Professor Churchill, who visited Great Britain this summer, will make the address of the evening. His extensive and intimate knowledge of English history will make the account of his impressions interesting and valuable. There will be a brief business meeting afterwards.

A new consignment of books, mainly on the Far East, has been received and placed in the bookcase in Room 27 of Corcoran Hall. These books are for the use of members.

LE CERCLE GALLIA HAS CHOSEN YEAR'S LEADERS

Le Cercle Gallia elected officers at the first meeting of the year held on Friday, October 14. These officers are: Professor Benetueau, faculty president; Madeleine Albert, student president; William Harrison, treasurer; Ernestine Hicks, secretary.

All students taking French are invited to the meetings of the club.

U. OF IOWA STARTS RADIO "MAGAZINE"

IOWA CITY, Iowa (IP).—The University of Iowa has inaugurated a radio "magazine," to be broadcast over the University station, WSUI.

Carried on by members of the University faculty, the "magazine" will take the form of late news broadcasts in the morning, with "editorial" or descriptive comments during the afternoon. A number of topics will be taken up, such as foreign affairs, economics, social science, etc.

"SOUL OWL" REPRINTS NOT TO BE EXCLUSIVE

LAWRENCE, Kans. (IP).—The staff of the Soul Owl, University of Kansas humor magazine, has voted to discontinue the exclusive reprint privilege formerly granted to College Humor, and has decided that any publication so desiring may reprint material from the magazine if proper credit is given.

HOT WEATHER SCENES AT FOOTBALL GAMES

OVERLIN, Ohio (IP).—Baseball scenes were in vogue for the first time in football history on Eastern and Mid-Western gridirons a week ago Saturday when the mercury was climbing for record October weather.

In many of the games the players wore only summer undershirts, and in the stands fans, shirt sleeves and straw hats took the place of the usual gloves, coonskin coats and mufflers.

In several of the Mid-Western games the stands were cleared in a hurry, leaving only the press box spectators, when severe thunderstorms swept the playing fields.

Ice cream cones replaced the hot dogs as the favorite stadium eats.

CO-EDS ELECTED TO ALL OFFICES AT WASHBURN

TOPEKA, Kans. (IP).—Taking advantage of the fact that they outnumbered the men in the class nearly two to one, the women in the class of 1928, Washburn College, elected co-eds to every office in the class elections just held.

HISTORY CLUB MEETING

The first meeting of the History Club for this term has been held on Tuesday evening, October 18, in Room 27, Corcoran Hall, at 8:30 o'clock. No special program had been announced for this meeting, but the club desired that all members be present to discuss plans for the coming year.

CONTACT COMMITTEE NAMED BY VAN VLECK

Good Fellowship is Aim of New Group Composed of Faculty and Students

Dean William C. Van Vleck of the University Law School has announced the appointment of a Faculty-Student "Contact Committee." This group will be composed of the members of the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs, the Secretary of the Law School, and four students, each representing a class year in the school. The purpose of the committee is to establish a contact between the faculty members and the student body and thus to create a feeling of cordiality and good fellowship.

The personnel of the committee as announced is: Prof. E. C. Arnold, Chairman; Prof. C. S. Collier; Miss Helen Newman, Secretary of the Law School; and Messrs. H. T. Kilburn, I. M. Stewart and W. M. Hansen.

OUSTED BY SYRACUSE. SUES FOR ADMISSION

Beatrice Anthony Not "Syracuse Type," Say Officials: Matter Waits Court Decision

(By New Student Service.) SYRACUSE, N. Y. — She was not the "Syracuse type," and "there had been rumors," so Beatrice Anthony, almost a year ago, was asked politely to withdraw from the university. She did, but not content with the meager explanation offered her by Syracuse deans and assistant deans, she took the matter to court and thereby started an interesting bit of litigation that is far from ended.

The university, ordered by a supreme court justice's decision to reinstate the banished student who wasn't the "type," has made ready for extended combat. With no more explanation than it offered when it took its first step in the ouster epic, it has entered an appeal from the decision in Miss Anthony's favor. Hostilities, now adjourned, will recommence probably in January.

When Miss Anthony could get no more explanation than the curt "not the type" for her summary dismissal she appealed to the court. The university, however, was not inclined to expand on its original statement, seeking refuge and authority in the pledge, acknowledging attendance to be a "privilege and not a right," which all Syracuse students must sign.

The court thought otherwise, and Justice Edward N. Smith declared the pledge void and without legality, and the university, as a semi-public institution, without authority in dismissing without stating the cause. With one judicial stroke great rejoicing was brought to many students and great sorrow to many deans.

But the university is tenacious. From Chancellor Charles W. Fling down to the merest official functionary, the university's right to unqualified dismissals is still a matter of firm faith, despite Judge Smith to the contrary. So the fight goes on; and in the meantime Miss Anthony, rudely separated from her educational career at the beginning of her senior year, awaits the final word from on high.

OLDEST FRAT PIN FOUND; IS PHI BETA KAPPA KEY

Key Dated 1776 Was Presented by William and Mary

THORNBURY, Pa. (IP).—The oldest fraternity pin in America, presented by William and Mary College of Virginia in 1776, is in the possession of Joseph Brinton, of this city.

The pin was plowed up on the Brinton estate near Brandywine Creek, Chester County, Pa., the battlefield on which General Washington outmaneuvered General Howe and where the Marquis de Lafayette was severely wounded.

The pin is of the old watchkey shape familiar to college men as the insignia of Phi Beta Kappa. On one side it bears the name "John Graham," with the date of the founding of the fraternity, December 6, 1776.

Investigation at William and Mary brought to light the fact that John Graham was graduated from there and left to join the Revolutionary Army in 1777. He disappeared about eight months later, and the finding of his pin on the battlefield indicates that he must have died in battle.

COLONIALS PREPARE FOR IMPENDING MAROON TILT

Pep Smoker for Men

Saturday's game will be the first that the Colonials have staged with the New York school and the outcome will be looked for with the interest by those who are watching George Washington's advent into greater football under the handicap of the one-year rule.

The lineup will probably be similar to that used in the Rutgers game, in which thirteen men took part. Sanders at quarterback, with Sapp, Clapper, Stehman, and Lopenan making up the backfield; Allshouse, Perry, and Carey as ends, Hartzog and Crombie at tackle; Athey and Goldman, guards, with Walker snapping the ball.

The game Saturday will mark a high point in student interest, and a pep smoker for men will be held in the Gym on Friday night at eight o'clock to give vent to the excessive enthusiasm and convince the team that the school is right behind them.

The Fordham squad and the Colonial warriors will be feted by the Gate and Key Society on Saturday night at the Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity house.

NEW COURSE GIVEN IN SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

Reorganization of School of Pharmacy Comes Under Plans Drawn Up Last Year

The George Washington University School of Pharmacy opened this year completely reorganized. Plans formulated by the late Dean Kalusowski for a three-year course leading to the degree of Ph. G., were completed, and this course, with a few modifications, is now being given.

The course is entirely up-to-date and complies with the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Syllabus as regards subjects taught, scope of each subject, and the number of hours required. Several subjects have been added to the curriculum and are being taught by men prominent in the profession in Washington.

Many more students have registered in the School of Pharmacy this year than did last. This, of course, helps to secure the future of this school.

Furthermore, the George Washington University School of Pharmacy holds membership in the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy. Membership in the Association assures a standard course and equipment, and also recognition of member schools and State Boards of Pharmacy in practically every State in the Union.

Washington has been selected as the home for an all pharmacy building, the site of which will be chosen in the near future. The building proper will be constructed at a cost of $500,000, and will contain quarters for the national officers of the American Pharmaceutical and allied Associations, a pharmaceutical library, and research laboratories.

The School of Pharmacy of George Washington University should be benefited materially by the addition of this building, with its modern facilities for scientific research, to the numerous government laboratories and libraries which have given Washington an advantage over all other cities for the teaching of these sciences.

CO-EDS TO UPHOLD SEX

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (IP).—Something new in international intercollegiate debates will be inaugurated here on December 1, when the co-ed debating team of Wittenberg College will meet an English men's debate squad made up of a Welshman, a Scotchman and an Englishman.

"Resolved, that co-education is a failure" will be the argument that the foreigners will support, while the co-eds will defend their own side of the question.

NEWMAN CLUB STARTS ACTIVITIES WITH DANCE

Coalition With National Federation of Catholic Clubs Under Consideration

At the meeting of the Newman Club Social Committee it was decided to start the activities of the year with a dance at the Brighton Hotel, Friday evening, October 28. Masks are preferred. Melita Chavez and her committee are perfecting the plans. Tickets, which are $1.00, can be had from Mary Miller, Nash Knapp, and Jack Kearful.

Mary Miller, the secretary, is conducting correspondence with the National Federation of Catholic Clubs in the hope that in the near future the George Washington Chapter of the Newman Club will be recognized by the Federation.

Prof. Fred V. Murphy, head of the School of Architecture at Catholic University, will talk on Architecture and its Association at the next meeting, on October 26, in Corcoran Hall 28.

HARVARD-PRINCETON ALUMNI TO PLAY GAME

Princeton Heads Will Try to Prevent Game in Yankee Stadium

NEW YORK, (IP).—Alumni of Harvard and Princeton, all former football stars in college days, are planning an "inter-alumni" football game between the two Universities in an effort to heal the athletic breach between the institutions. Some of the most famous players from both schools are on the tentative line-up for the game. The game will be played in Yankee Stadium here on October 30.

Opposing the athletic department of the university here, the Daily Princetonian is ardently supporting the proposed football game between Harvard and Princeton alumni as an effort to restore amicable athletic relations between the two members of the former "Big Three." Princeton athletic heads declared they are bringing all possible power to bear to stop the game.

"If such a game is played, it will not represent Princeton," declared Dean Henry Burchard Fine, acting chairman of the Princeton Board of Athletic Control.

PRESIDENT MARVIN TALKS

President Marvin was one of the principal speakers at a rally of the Interdenominational Committee of Young People Friday night of last week. This meeting, which was the third annual rally, was held in the Central High School Auditorium and represented about eight thousand Protestant young people of Washington. Bishop Freeman also gave a talk.
